

Pavilions Highlight Key Market Segments at G2E 2010

November 16-18, 2010
Las Vegas Convention Center
www.globalgamingexpo.com

Security & Surveillance Pavilion, Sponsored by:

The Eye In The Sky Security & Surveillance Pavilion features products such as CCTV, facial recognition, coin wrappers, consulting/training, monitoring, alarms, dice and voucher bags, security vehicles, access control, weapons detectors, investigating services, security software. The Eye In The Sky Security & Surveillance Pavilion is supported by a full conference track, content provided by ASIS International.

Casino Design Pavilion

The Casino Design Pavilion features products and services such as architecture, construction, interior design, landscape architecture, signage, land use, furniture/fixtures, décor, themed environments (design and construction), golf course designers and hospitality lighting. The Casino Design Pavilion is also supported by a full conference track.

Technology Pavilion

The Technology Pavilion is for technology suppliers and manufacturers and features products such as video lottery terminals (VLTs), gaming software, hospitality software, kiosks/ATMs, systems integrators, reader cards/smart cards, LCD monitors, monitors, POS software, LED screens, retail technology, information technology. The Technology Pavilion is supported by a full conference track during the G2E Training & Development Institute.

New Exhibitor Pavilion

Don't miss this year's New Exhibitor Pavilion where you will see some unique and first-time exhibitors to G2E. In addition to the pavilion there are also many other companies new to G2E, so be sure to check out all of the companies on the exhibit floor.

To reserve your space, or for more information, contact Mike Carlucci at 1-203-840-5625 or at mcarlucci@globalgamingexpo.com.