

G2E 2012 Pavilions Fact Sheet

Pavilions Highlight Key Market Segments at G2E 2012

October 2-4, 2012
The Sands Expo & Convention Center
www.globalgamingexpo.com

Security & Surveillance Pavilion

The Security & Surveillance Pavilion features products such as CCTV, facial recognition, coin wrappers, consulting/training, monitoring, alarms, dice and voucher bags, security vehicles, access control, weapons detectors, investigating services, security software. The Security & Surveillance Pavilion is supported by a full conference track.

Casino Design Pavilion

The Casino Design Pavilion features products and services such as architecture, construction, interior design, landscape architecture, signage, land use, furniture/fixtures, décor, themed environments (design and construction), golf course designers and hospitality lighting. The Casino Design Pavilion is also supported by a full conference track.

iGaming Business Pavilion, Sponsored by

The iGaming Business Pavilion, sponsored by iGaming Business Magazine. The global Internet gambling industry is poised to grow more than 50 percent in the next five years. The iGaming Pavilion at G2E will keep industry professionals abreast of the latest developments in this sector while helping prepare the U.S. for potential legalization. The iGaming Business Pavilion is supported by iGaming Congress at G2E and the iGaming track during the G2E Conference.

Non-Gaming Specialty Events

Food, Beverage & Hospitality AT G2E

The place for you to capitalize on the importance of non-gaming amenities within the casino entertainment industry.

This dedicated event shines a spotlight on the importance of entertainment within casinos as a critical and growing part of the overall guest experience.

Dates and Venue

Venue:	The Sands Expo & Convention Center
October 2-4:	Exhibits & Conference
October 1:	G2E Advanced Gaming Institute Security & Surveillance Institute G2E Leadership Academy Gaming Congress Social Media Bootcamp

To reserve your space, or for more information, contact
Mike Johnson at 1-203-840-5860 or mjohnson@globalgamingexpo.com